PANJAB UNIVERSITY : A PROFILE

An Overview

As an Institution which has gone through the vicissitudes of time, the Panjab University has demonstrated its resilience, durability, utility and acceptability as a unique institution of higher education. Retaining the time honoured and valued subjects of study, it has simultaneously started programmes in emerging areas and provided infrastructure of a substantial nature to provide quality education.

Report of the National Assessment and Accreditation Council, Bangalore, 2001.

The Panjab University offers a beautifully laid out compact campus with modern amenities in a pollution-free environment. With its most modern laboratories and equipment, and one of the largest libraries in Asia, the University has a long tradition of pursuing excellence in teaching and research in science, technology, medicine, humanities, social sciences, learned professions, performing arts and sports. Nearly 15,000 students on its campuses come from all over India, besides the SAARC countries, the Middle-East, Africa and South-East Asia. An equal number of students are covered by the distance education programmes of the University. A special provision has been made for the admission of Non-Resident Indian students. History

Of all the modern universities in the Indian subcontinent, the Panjab University has had a somewhat exceptional history and development. Originally founded at Lahore in 1882 as the fourth Indian University, it grew both as a teaching and examining body. After Independence, the Parliament of India reincorporated the Panjab University for 'imparting education', 'furthering advancement of learning', and for 'prosecution of original research' in various fields. However, the dislocation resulting from Partition in 1947 scattered its offices and teaching departments at various places in the East Punjab and Delhi. Finally, in 1956, the Panjab University came to be located at Chandigarh which was developing as the new capital of the Punjab State. The red sand stone campus of the University, designed by the French architect Piere Jenerette under the overall guidance of the renowned Le Carbusier, was ready by the early 1960s.

After the Reorganization of Punjab in 1966, the Panjab University became an Inter-State Body Corporate, and catered to the newly organized states of Punjab and Haryana, and the Union Territories of Himachal Pradesh and Chandigarh. At present more than 192 affiliated/constituent colleges spread over Punjab and Chandigarh, Regional Centres at Muktsar, Ludhiana, Hoshiarpur, Kauni, Visveshvaranand Vishva Bandhu Institute of Sanskrit and Indological Studies (VVBIS & IS) at Hoshiarpur. The University is maintained jointly by the Central and State governments in the ratio of 60 : 40, respectively. Its annual tentative budget for 2012 is Rs. 429.34 crores.

The Campus

The main campus at Chandigarh is spread over an area of over 550 acres in sectors 14 and 25, and has fairly well-marked zones : the teaching area in the north-east, with the Central Library, Fine Arts Museum, and three-winged structure of the Gandhi Bhawan forming its core; the sports complex, the health centre, and the shopping centre in the middle; 17 university hostels on the flanks and the south; and the residential area in the south-east, stretching into the adjacent sector 25 which also houses the newly developing University Institute of Engineering and Technology, Dr. Harvansh Singh Judge Institute of Dental Sciences and Hospital and University Institute of Applied Management Sciences.

As a self-sustaining township, the University campus has other amenities like the State Bank of India, Canara Bank, Post and Telegraph Office, public transport system, open air theatre, guest and faculty houses, seminar complexes, staff club, several spacious lawns, botanical and medicinal herbs gardens, a newly laid rose garden, a school and a day-care centre for the employees' children. The campus is adjacent to the premier medical institution of the northern region known as the P.G.I. (Post Graduate Institute of Medical Education and Research). The teaching departments, students' hostels, faculty residences and other amenities are all within walking distance from one another.

Teaching Departments

The 75 teaching departments and 15 centres/chairs on the campus 3 Regional Centres at Ludhiana, Hoshiarpur & Muktsar and one Rural Centre at Kauni are grouped under the School System : Schools of Social Sciences, Educational Studies and Development, Fine Arts & Performing Arts, Physical Sciences, Basic Biological Sciences, Medical & Biomedical Sciences, Business Management, Engineering Sciences, Legal Studies, Languages, Environmental Sciences and Multi Faculty/Multi Disciplinary Institutes. Most departments have their own specialized libraries, and the working period runs for at least 182 days.

CENTRE FOR NUCLEAR MEDICINE

About the Centre

Nuclear medicine is the medical specialty concerned with the use of safe and small amounts of radioactive materials for diagnostic, therapeutic, and research purposes. More specifically, nuclear medicine is a part of molecular imaging because it produces images which reflect biological processes that take place at the cellular and subcellular levels. A typical nuclear medicine study involves the administration of a radionuclide into the body in order to obtain images of the organs, to perform various body function studies and to treat diseases. Most of the radionuclides used for diagnostic studies emit gamma rays, while the cell-damaging properties of beta particles are used in therapeutic applications. Radionuclides for use in nuclear medicine are derived either from nuclear reactors which produce radioisotopes with longer half-lives, or from cyclotrons/generators which produce radioisotopes with shorter half-lives.

Radioisotopes/Radiopharmaceuticals have affinities for specific organs, bones, or tissues and emit gamma rays that can be detected externally by scintillation cameras. Images are created by computers and provide data and information about the areas of the body being viewed.

Nuclear medicine imaging techniques combine the use of radioactive substances, detectors, and computers to provide functional images inside the human body by using advanced techniques like Positron Emission Tomography (PET) and Single Photon Emission Computed Tomography (SPECT). Nuclear medicine imaging is useful for detecting tumors, irregular or inadequate blood flow to various tissues, blood cell disorders and inadequate functioning of organs. During diagnostic procedures, the patient experiences little or no discomfort and the radiation dose delivered is very small.

Nuclear medicine technical experts are highly skilled individuals and their responsibilities include performing in vivo, radiation safety and quality control procedures. Other responsibilities which include operating the cameras that create images including patient positioning and processing the data for research purposes. The discipline of nuclear medicine also produces dedicated scientists who develop radiopharmaceuticals/radioisotopes for the imaging/therapies of organs.

INSTITUTE OF FORENSIC SCIENCE & CRIMINOLOGYAbout the Institute

The application of science to the law and exploring the body of knowledge regarding delinquency and crime as social phenomena is what comprise the Institute of Forensic Science & Criminology (IFSC). The institute has been incepted by Panjab University from session 2009-2010.

Forensic Science is the diverse collection of scientific techniques. In practice, forensic science is built upon the principles dragged from physics, chemistry, biology, anthropology and other scientific principles and methods. In earlier times real 'forensic science' has been assigned to the real science of fingerprints, firearms, tool-marks and questioned documents etc. However, although many of the techniques used in modern forensic sciences have been borrowed from other sciences, it is also true that in recent years, it had matured into a scientific discipline in its own right.

Criminology is the development of a body of general and verified principles and of other types of knowledge regarding the process of law, crime and reaction to crime. Criminology is aimed principally at elucidating the connection between crime and the personal characteristics of the offender or his environment, with special reference to the origin of the offence.

The Institute of Forensic Science and Criminology provide a M.Sc. degree to the students covering the realm of forensic sciences and criminology with a desire to put it to maximum use in detecting, investigating and ultimately reducing the crime. Offshoot aim is utilizing scientific power in producing 'scientific workforce' to meet the needs of highly technical personnel to serve the society in an effective and efficient way.

Module

The subject is designed to introduce the concepts, disciplines and principles of the forensic sciences in their application to modern forensics. Topics include the history of forensic science, an overview of the commonly utilized scientific disciplines (e.g. forensic biology, odontology, anthropology, toxicology, chemistry, psychology, document examination, ballistics, computer forensic, Voice, image & video analysis and crime scene management etc.), the use and implications of forensic databases, ethical issues and legislation, the skills involved in scientific analysis (observation, interpretation, record keeping, report writing, expert testimony), accreditation procedures and quality assurance.

Scope

There are enough scope for career growth in government and Private Sector in India and abroad. The criterion of 'employment' as a condition of eligibility for admission to the Department of Evening Studies be understood, interpreted and applied liberally and pragmatically, keeping in mind the social purpose of providing opportunity especially to the underprivileged to upgrade their skills. Accordingly, 'employment' would include not only 'private employment of any kind' but self employment as well. The candidate's own certificated that he is so employed or self –employed would, therefore, suffice.

Note : No 'Failed' candidate shall be admitted. (The students whose admission forms were duly sent by the Department to the Controller of Examinations for appearing in the examination, but did not appear, or dropped the paper, will also be considered 'failed' students under University Rules).

Eligibility for Admission :-

The eligibility conditions for admission to M.A. Part I are given in the general section of this Handbook. Students are, however, advised to consult the 'University Calendar' for relevant regulation or detailed 'Syllabus, Courses and Regulation' for the class/subject concerned.

Such a student can appear in the same examination as a private candidate as prescribed under the University regulation;
- (b) If a student fail to meet the prescribed attendance requirement, and is, therefore, debarred from sitting in the examination, or does not on his /her own volition seek permission to sit in the examination he/she should be deemed to have failed in the examination. Such a student be not allowed to seek re-admission in the same Department;

If the fraction is 0.5 or more, it shall be rounded off to 1; if it is less than 0.5, it shall be ignored. This shall, however, not affect the total number of seats in the open category. To ensure this, if the total number of seats after making this adjustment, exceeds the prescribed number fixed for the course, the necessary additional seats shall be created with the prior permission of the D.U.I./Vice-Chancellor. Such seats, if created, shall be treated as additional only for the year in question.

Illustration :

In a course which has 25 seats, the distribution of seats among the various categories will be as under :-

Open Category	SC	ST	BC	Sports	Military Personnel	Phy. Handi-capped	Riot Victim	Freedom Fighters	Total

It will be seen that this raises the total number of seats to 26. The 26th seat will be treated as additional in that course for that year only. The additional seat, if required to be created, shall be created only for the Reserved category and not for the Open category. Such additional seat, if remains unfilled, will not be converted to open category.

- (b) If a student fails to meet the prescribed attendance requirement, and is, therefore, debarred from sitting in the examination, or does not on his/her own violation seek permission to sit in the examination he/she should be deemed to have failed in the examination. Such a student be not allowed to seek re-admission in the same Department;

7.3 Preparation of Merit Lists/Normalisation of Marks.

Admission to both the (Open and Reserved) categories of seats shall be on the basis of merit within each category and the merit list shall be prepared as per these Rules.

The basis for preparation of the provisional merit list shall be as follows :

Marks of other Universities will be normalized to 2400 marks which are 3 years aggregate marks of B.A./B.Sc.(Gen.) of Panjab University. Similarly marks obtained by the candidates in the relevant subject will be normalized to 600 marks which is the total of 3 years aggregate marks of B.A./B.Sc. (Gen.) of elective subjects of Panjab University. The normalization procedure is explained below :-

- (a) The marks obtained by a candidate in B.A./B.Sc. will be normalized on the basis of an aggregate. For example, if a student has scored 495 marks out of total of 900 marks in B.A./B.Sc., his normalized aggregate marks (out of 2400) would be :-

$$\frac{495}{900} \times 2400 = 1320$$

These marks will be denoted by X and called the Basic Merit Marks.

- (b) The marks in the relevant subject (i.e., the subject in which the admission is sought) will be normalized by changing the marks allotted to the relevant subject to 600 in order to give advantage of the subject to a candidate.

For example, if a candidate has obtained 240 marks out of 300 in the relevant subject, then the normalized marks in the subject would be :-

$$\frac{240}{300} \times 600 = 480 \text{ out of } 600$$

These may be denoted by Y.

Some universities award B.A./B.Sc. degree on the basis of aggregate marks of B.A./B.Sc. 2nd and 3rd years. In that case the aggregate marks and the marks of the relevant subject in which the applicant is seeking admission, will be considered on the basis of marks obtained in B.A./B.Sc. 2nd and 3rd years only for calculation of the basic merit marks and in the relevant subject.

In some cases, there could be students who have not studied the relevant subject, or the study of the subject is too elementary to be equated with the standard of B.A./B.Sc. level of Panjab University in the subject in which they are seeking admission in Post-graduate course. For such category of students Y is taken to be zero.

Candidates having passed B.A./B.Sc. from other universities with 4 elective subjects in addition to optional subjects at B.A./B.Sc. level shall not be given any credit under Y, i.e. Y shall be taken to be zero.

- (c) (i) Candidates who have passed B.A./B.Sc./B.Com. with Hons. either from Panjab University or from any other University would be given 15% weightage of the basic merit marks X obtained for the purpose of admission in Post-graduate course in the subject in which Honours examination was passed. Similar weightage would be given to candidates who have passed B.A./B.Sc./B.Com. examination according to Hons. School like system specializing in one subject in which the admission is sought for the P.G. course.

Explicitly this weightage would be denoted by Z and calculated as follows :

$$\mathbf{Z} = \mathbf{X} \times \frac{15}{100}$$

- (ii) Candidates who have passed a Special Degree from another University will be treated at par with B.A. Examination of Panjab University with Honours in the relevant subject provided the B.A. Special Degree is recognized as equivalent to the corresponding B.A. with Honours Degree of Panjab University in the relevant subject.
- (d) Where no test is required for admission, the final Merit marks of a candidate would be X+Y+Z+ other weightages as prescribed at 16.1 and 16.2. Other weightages as prescribed at 16.1 and 16.2 would be calculated on the basic merit marks X.

In a Teaching Department of the Faculties of Arts and Languages which does not hold a separate entrance test for admission to M.A. Semester-I there shall be two merit lists : first one consisting of those candidates who did their B.A./B.Sc. with the subject of M.A. and the second one of those who did not study the subject of M.A. in their B.A./B.Sc. examination. The first merit list shall be taken up first and the second one after the first merit list is exhausted.
